

Alamin Mazrui

Alamin Mazrui is a writer and academic who became a political prisoner before eventually seeking asylum in the United States. During his imprisonment, he wrote a poem in the margins of a Bible using pens he had secretly taken from prison guards. His time in prison shaped both his worldview and his creative expression. After leaving his home country, he continued his academic career as a professor at the University of Michigan. There, he remained outspoken on global political issues. He was particularly known for his strong support of the Palestinian cause.
